Gaining a sense of scale, riders size up a locomotive along Roeder.

A slight up-tick in participation shows the beginning of the seasonal return to the Shop as well as the addition of a few new faces. School's out later this month and if it's anything like last year, that will shake loose a lot of cycling enthusiasm. The bell curve to the left shows that middle schoolers are leading the trend: venturing out, working on their bikes, a little more eager and equipped with a little more independence, they are the catalyst that carries the enthusiasm home to siblings older and younger alike. And the weather... let's just keep our fingers crossed!

Tour de Whatcom team registration!
 Perhaps you've already been riding as a workplace or other group or you might like to. Teams of riders can now register to compete to see which team can ride the most miles on a beautiful tour of county!
